THE GREATEST BAKE-DAY HELP

No Alum—No Phosphate

A license was issued Wednesday morning, authorizing the marriage of Mr. Fred C. Malsam and Miss Mary M. Keller, both of Collyer which will take place June 20th.

Judge Sam G. Sheaffer died May 31 at his home in Ness City. He was an old soldier and one of the pioneers of western Kansas, coming to the old town of Sidney thirty six years ago. At one time he was clerk of the district court but at the time of his death he was Probate Judge, having served his county in that capacity almost fifteen years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Last Saturday and Sunday, June 10th and 11th, the annual County Sunday School convention was held at the Presbyterian church. Five sessions were held and each one proved most interesting. State Sunday School Secretary J. H. Engle of Abilene was present and gave his usual splendid address and talks during the convention. He does not allow things to drag and the bright, vigorous and interesting manner in which he takes hold of the Sunday School work makes it a pleasure to attend the convention. Mrs. Mary Hunt and Miss Mary Groft each gave an interesting report of the State Sunday School convention held at Wichita in May. Rev. Stringer of Banner, Rev. Allison, Rev. Thompson and Rev. Woodward gave good and helpful instruction. Mrs. J. H. Neisley, Mrs. E. Courtney and Mrs. C. K. Sellers had charge of the song and praise services during the convention and furnished splendid music. E. A. Courtney, Mrs. George Glass of Silver Lake school, R. W. Blakely of Ogallah, Miss Grace Hancock and Mrs. A. J. Atherton from the Walker district, each responded to their parts on the program in a most interesting and helpful manner. Each session was well attended and more than usual interest seemed to be manifested. The county convention is something that every one should be interested in and it is especially helpful to Sunday School workers and those interested in the best things for the Sunday School.

The following officers were elected for the next year: J. H. Neisley, president; Rev. H. D. Mac Thompson, vice president; Roy W. Blakely, vice president; Mrs. C. H. Benson, secretary and treasurer; Miss Mary Groft, missionary secretary; E. A. Courtney, secretary of adult department; Mrs. Mary Hunt, secretary of temperance department; Mrs. C. C. Yetter, secretary of elementary training; Mrs. W. Y. Herrick, secretary of teen age; E. E. Lindberg, secretary of teachers' training.

Great Ball Game at Collyer

Next Sunday, June 18th, the best game of the season will be played on the Collyer diamond between the Damar and Collyer teams. At least 50 cars loaded with rooters from Hill City, Bogus, Damar, Palco, Zurich and Plainville are expected—so have the Collyer restaurant people been notified. The Collyer band has been engaged for a free concert just before the game which will begin at 3 p. m. central time. Admission 25 cents.

Harken to the echoes of the dead and mouldy past. Here is a piece Congressman John Connelly wrote for his Colby Free Press last week: The reports from Chicago that John Wannamaker and other millionaires have purchased residences to occupy during the convention because there were no suitable hotel accommodations would indicate that money will do all within its power to defeat the Democratic party at the coming election. You can't make the millionaires come through with their share of the taxes to run the government and still retain their good will. The millionaires knows where his interests lies. It remains to be seen whether the great body of working or producing people of the country know that their interests are not necessarily with the millionaires.—Osborne Farmer.

The world is full of a number of things and one is the Dutch operetta at the Garden Theater, June 23.

Farmers! Attention! Attend the Frank Clark Sale next Tuesday at the Aaron Cockrell farm in Adair.

Next Sunday afternoon the Collyer base ball club will cross bats with the Damar boys on the Collyer diamond. These clubs are pretty evenly matched and will give lovers of the great national game the worth of their money. A special invitation from Collyer is extended to all base ball cranks and fans to be present and root for Collyer.

Miss Minnie McClury, the fashionable milliner, left the latter part of last week for her home at Smith Center.

The parsonage for the German Lutheran church was dedicated by its congregation on Tuesday. The service was conducted in the church by Father Findenbinder and a general reception in the new home. This church is in a very prosperous condition and has built a very fine home for the pastor.

The A. O. U. W. will hold a box social at their hall over the Trego County State bank Saturday evening, June 17th, to which everybody is invited to bring a box and have a good time.

Property owners in the city responded promptly to the clean up call but from the growth of weeds, sweet clover, etc., along the streets there is an apparent lack of effort on the part of the street force to do their part.

RECORD OF R. M. ANDERSON

Lorraine, Kansas, May 7, 1916

Mr. C. W. Hamilton,
Ellsworth, Kansas

Dear Sir:

Since certain literature has been contributed here by Mr. Benton and his friends which gave the impression that Mr. Anderson was opposed to the prohibitory movements in Kansas, I have undertaken an investigation of these charges and the answers to my inquiries are so decidedly favorable to Mr. Anderson, that I quote you the following taken from the reply of Miss Mable Fulton of Beloit, whom I know to have been one of the most devoted workers in the Methodist church and Epworth League when she lived at our home in Frederick. She was raised in the Beloit neighborhood and has lived in the city of Beloit since growing up, except a few years she lived with us and is in a position to know the facts. She says:

“You will make no mistake in supporting Mr. Anderson. He is wide awake, up to date, and is a man who accomplishes things. I have heard that he can make the strongest kind of a Temperance speech, although I have never heard him do so. I seldom hear anything of that kind as I am tied to my desk pretty closely. I am sure you can count on him taking the right stand on the Prohibition question. He is well informed and too public spirited to work against prohibition. Of course, I suppose politicians must fight each other, but I really think Mr. Benton is not quite fair to Mr. Anderson. I am not much of a politician myself but I like to see the best all around man represent us and I don't believe that you can find one more capable than Max Anderson. In my opinion he will use both vote and influence in promoting the prohibition movement.”

(Signed) MABLE FULTON.

I also quote the following from the secretary of the W. C. T. U. whom I had written and asked her to state “why” the organization had not endorsed Mr. Anderson. She says:

“The W. C. T. U. is a non-partisan organization and does not endorse any one for public office. Mr. Anderson has not asked for their endorsement, but simply quoted a statement of a voter, who is secretary of the Mitchell County organization.

Relative to his candidacy for Mayor on a “wet” ticket; Beloit does not have “wet” and “dry” tickets. It is a prohibition town in a prohibition state; and our local elections do not touch upon these matters, but rather, upon our local affairs. Mr. Anderson is a progressive and capable young man who “does things” and such people always meet with more or less criticism and especially from a political standpoint. Mr. Anderson is a straightforward, brilliant, young attorney who stands for the best of everything in this community. From a personal acquaintance of several years I have never found him antagonistic to the prohibition, or other law, but in favor of their enforcement. If it is his good fortune to be our Congressman from this district we will hear great things from him. I am glad to make this explanation and hope it will satisfy those friendly to his candidacy.”

(Signed) MRS. EVA BREWER.

The original of these letters are in my possession and are subject to inspection by anyone.

Very Truly,

C. D. MCILREE,
Lorraine, Kansas.
